Trade a Meal (TAM): The Trade a Meal option allows you to “trade in” one dining hall meal for one of our Trade a Meal specials at our retail locations. TAM’s are not additional meals on top of your dining hall meals, they add flexibility to your meal plan, allowing you to eat outside of the dining halls at any of our 22 retail locations across campus. Plans C1, C2, C3 and C4 include a total of 200 Trade a Meals and you can use up to a maximum of four TAM’s a day.

* Snack Plan Flex $: taxable funds we provide in addition to your meal plan. These funds can be used to purchase retail single serve snacks such as pop, fruit, Fresh to Go, or baked goods from 22 different retail locations on campus. These funds do not expire and can be carried over to the next academic year. More funds can be added to your student card in any denomination at any time during the semester through the Hospitality Services website or at the Hospitality Services Office. All snack plan purchases subject to HST.

Queen's Hospitality Services – Off-Campus Meal Plan Contract

Meal plans created for students who live off-campus.

Terms and Conditions

1. Off-campus meal plans are valid from September 1st, 2018 to 24 hours following your last Spring exam. Unused Flex $ do not expire and may be carried over to the next academic year.
2. Flex $ are refundable (a $50 administration fee will apply to all withdrawals – bonus dollars are not refunded).
3. You must present your meal card for all meals and transactions.
4. In order to protect your Flex $, a lost card must be reported to the Queen's Hospitality Services Office (in Victoria Hall), or to any cashier in order to freeze your account. A temporary card will be issued. Visit our website dining.queensu.ca for more details.
5. A student card is issued to every student when they first arrive at Queen's. It is to be kept for the duration of your studies and is to be used only by the person to whom it is issued. A fee will be charged to replace a lost or damaged student card.
6. Due to tax regulations, certain items may be subject to applicable taxes.
7. You have 30 days from initial purchase to refund or switch your off-campus meal plan. Fees applicable.

Please note, plans purchased prior to September 1, 2018 must be paid by September 30, 2018. All plans purchased after September 1, 2018, will have 30 days to be paid in full. Any outstanding balances will be charged interest at Queen's University's usual rate. Any balance owing must be paid at the Bank of Montreal no later than January 1, 2019, using First Payment Plan.

Queen's University Hospitality Services collects certain personal information from resident students and is committed to protecting that information. This information used for the following purposes on behalf of Queen's Residences:

- to process meal plan application forms
- to assess the efficiency of our operations
- to communicate with students, parents and others regarding our services
- to bill, collect and account for provision of meal plans

In the collection, use, disclosure and retention of personal information Queen's University Hospitality Services will comply with the University's Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Guidelines, the University Registrar's Student and Applicant Record Policy and practices and applicable federal legislation.

Queen's Hospitality Services reserves the right to cancel a meal plan and suspend meal privileges at any time.
